

The purpose of a personal testimony is to tell what Jesus Christ has done in and for you. Read Acts chapter 26 and answer the following questions in your own words.

Describe Paul's life before he met Jesus Christ. Acts 26:4-11

---

2. Describe your own life before you met Jesus Christ.

---

---

3. Describe the circumstances surrounding Paul's conversion. Acts 26:12-18

---

---

Describe the circumstances surrounding your conversion. If you do not recall a specific date or setting, describe the first time that you became personally serious about your faith in God.

---

---

5. Write out the scripture you claimed at the time you trusted Christ as your Savior, or other scripture that you now claim as the basis for your assurance of salvation.

---

---

6. Describe the changes that occurred in Paul's life. Acts 26:19-23

---

---

7. Describe the changes Jesus Christ has made in your life.

---

---

8. Describe Paul's appeal to accept Christ. Acts 26:25-29

---

---

9. Describe an appeal you could use to encourage a listener to trust their life to Jesus Christ.

---

---

10. On one page, write out your answers to questions 2, 4, 5, 7 & 9. That is your testimony.
